Dear Friends,

A river flowing with chocolate. Carbonated drinks with enough “hot air” to make you float off the ground. Lick-able fruit wallpaper. Gum that changes flavor as you chew.

These sweet delights fill the make-believe world of the film Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, where children buy chocolate bars and hope to find a rare golden ticket that will allow them the privilege of a behind-the-scenes factory tour—and a chance to taste new treats.

The Bible says, “O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.” (Psalm 34:8).

We don’t need to run off to a make-believe world in order to find a world of wonder and grace, a world of purpose and significance.

Jesus Christ comes as God’s invitation to life. All of life. Not just religious life. Not just Sunday morning life. All of life.

With joy,
Scott

Randolph-Clay High School Prayerwalk

Summer is almost over for the students of Randolph-Clay High School. Classes start soon and the prayers we pray now will be so important for the up-coming school year. This is our last chance to gather in prayer for the students, teachers and staff before they come back for the 2009-2010 school year.

Your support and prayers will demonstrate to the students how important they are to our community. Everyone is welcome, please come join us this Sunday, July 19 from 2:30-3:30 at the high school.

*Thank you,
Jan Nicholson*
