THANKS-GIVING SUNDAY

November 22nd is Thanks-Giving Sunday. It's a day when we can celebrate all God has given us. It's a day when we can affirm our plans to honor him with our giving to the ministries of his church in the coming year.

Plan to be present in worship to offer your Thanks-Giving offering estimates for 2010.

And plan to stick around for a fellowship dinner of Thanks-Giving for the whole church family.

See you on Thanks-Giving Sunday!

Conventional wisdom says a good waiter or waitress deserves a tip somewhere in the 15% range, or maybe higher if the service is excellent.

Credit card companies think they are giving us a break if they only charge 21% interest on our outstanding balances.

The IRS considers me—and, likely, some of you—to be self-employed. They start counting with 15% off the top, before even figuring the exemptions and other brackets for actual income tax.

The tithe is the best deal in town!

The tithe—biblically defined at 10% of income—is a wonderful way to give God a gift back. By tithing, we are telling the Lord that we know 100% of what we have is his anyway.

By tithing, we say “thank you” for the privilege of keeping the other 90%.

And it just doesn't get any better than that.

With joy,

Scott
