An irony of the calendar places Valentine's Day, the day we celebrate romantic love, less than a week from Ash Wednesday (February 17 this year), a day that marks our need for repentance, our need to receive a love beyond anything we can give.

Let us pray with Martin Luther, the Christian reformer of 16th century Germany:

*Behold, Lord, an empty vessel that needs to be filled.
My Lord, fill it.*

I am weak in the faith; strengthen me.

*I am cold in love; warm me and make me fervent,
that my love may go out to my neighbor.*

I do not have a strong and firm faith; at times I doubt and am unable to trust you altogether.

O Lord, help me. Strengthen my faith and trust in you.

In you I have sealed the treasure of all I have.

I am poor; you are rich and came to be merciful to the poor.

I am a sinner; you are upright.

With me, there is an abundance of sin; in you is the fullness of righteousness.

Therefore I will remain with you, of whom I can receive, but to whom I may not give.

Amen

With joy,

Scott
