Perspective.

I suppose perspective was one of the many gifts Lazarus had gained.

Lazarus, who had fallen gravely sick, grieved his sisters, died. Lazarus, who was laid in a tomb, heard the familiar voice of his friend, "Lazarus, come out!"

Alive again, the new Lazarus surely had greater faith in God. Maybe he was tempted to write a bestseller with a title like Four Days in Heaven or Behind the Stone. But I suppose Lazarus came back with a new perspective on everyday life.

So that, when he heard there was a conspiracy to kill him, he had perspective. Death? Again? I've already done that. No problem.

Sometimes the Gospel can give us the tools we need to live in perspective.

What happens to our paycheck... what happens in Washington, DC... what happens to my friends' opinion of me... what happens at the doctor's office...

These things may be important, but the Gospel tells us they are not the final word.

Jesus still speaks today to people like us, entombed by feelings of death, "Come out!"

With joy,

Scott
