We United Methodists have a great blessing in our ability to see the goodness of God working in and through a great network of local congregations, all across South Georgia and all around the world.

Writing about the whole family of churches, one ancient Christian leader said,

“Although the church of Jesus Christ is found in many different places, she is one true church, not many. After all, there are many rays of sunlight, but only one sun. A tree has many boughs, each slightly different from others, but all drawing their strength from one source. Many streams may flow down a hillside, but they all originate from the same spring. In exactly the same way each local congregation belongs to the one true church.” (Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, North Africa, third century AD)

Over the next six weeks, we will be working together through a season of change for the Cuthbert “branch” on the United Methodist “tree” in the one true church of Jesus Christ. Cuthbert’s next appointed pastor, the Rev. Christopher Shoemaker, will be visiting with us on Wednesday, May 5, along with his wife Kerri. There will be a reception for the congregation to meet the Shoemakers, beginning at 5:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall, with a light supper to follow at 6:00 pm.

Let’s affirm our unity in Jesus Christ and in his church by making this a season of love and blessing together.

With joy,

Scott
