(11:00 a.m. Sunday services televised Mondays at 6:00 p.m., cable channel 17)

A man pulled into my driveway the other day. He saw me in the yard and wanted to offer me a “good deal” on steaks from a tiny freezer unit in the bed of his pickup.

I politely declined and turned my attention back to playing with the children.

Not satisfied with my answer, he called out, “What’s the matter? You don’t like steaks?”

Several possible replies ran through my mental filter. I settled on simple and direct. “I do not want to buy any steaks. Period.” There was no more room for debate or discussion.

The man got the message and drove across the street to accost my neighbors.

I think there are some places in life where Jesus has spoken simply and directly, with a period and little room for debate.

Forgiveness is one of those places. Our need to forgive and our need to be forgiven are intertwined. Our ability to forgive depends on our recognition of our own forgiven-ness.

So let’s push through toward forgiving and receiving forgiveness. Period.

See you Sunday.

With joy,

Scott

Revival Prayer Walks

Please come and join us this Sunday afternoon, May 16th, from 2:30 – 3:30 to walk the halls and pray for the students, teachers and staff at Randolph-Clay High School and Middle School. We are also excited that the Clay County School Board has approved the first Revive Prayer Walk in the Clay County Elementary and Middle School to be held at the same time and day so please choose a school and come out and pray with us.

Revive Prayer Walks are a nationwide movement of non-denominational gatherings of believers from many churches that have made the commitment to make a difference through prayer.
We invite you to come walk and pray with us and "Let's see what God does next".
