Chris Shoemaker, Pastor

Rev. Shane Green, District Superintendent Rev. James R. King, Jr., Bishop
Jimmy Brownlee, Music Director and Business Administrator

(11:00 a.m. Sunday services televised Mondays at 6:00 p.m., cable channel 17)

From the Pastor:

It’s a long-time staple of American life that “duct tape can fix anything.” So the makers of the iconic sticky stuff (did you know it comes in over 20 colors and patterns?) came up with a national challenge: make your prom outfits from duct tape. That’s right: dress, tux, and accessories all from 100% pure, American duct tape. Duct tape clothing and accessories aren’t new. I’ve seen many do-it-yourself duct tape Bible covers; and you can even buy a ready-made “Duct Tape Bible.” One of my parishioners once made a pretty nice jacket out of the traditional silver tape. Looking at the pictures of the top ten tape prom outfits was amazing. The designs and colors are incredible! The creativity and skill of each of the young couples really came through in the finished products. The winning creation (of a $3000 scholarship) took 30 rolls of tape and 300 hours to make. Win or lose, these outfits mean infinitely more than anything purchased or rented. They are unique reflections of the couples who created them.

The raw material of ministry is all around us. God has given us so many talents: music, art, writing, speaking, administration—the list goes on and on. We as a church can combine our talents in the light of our community’s needs to create ministry that’s uniquely ours. Something that reflects God’s love and faithfulness in a way that only we can do. The effort might be great—but the reward is eternal. So, what do you say—shall we get started?

In His Love & Service,
Chris
